National HIV/AIDS Strategy

This program is presented by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

President Obama's National HIV/AIDS Strategy provides a mandate for us, as a nation, to focus our efforts on those at greatest risk, including African Americans. At CDC, fighting HIV among African Americans remains one of our top HIV prevention priorities. More than half of our HIV prevention budget goes towards fighting HIV among African Americans.

For the most accurate health information, visit www.cdc.gov or call 1-800-CDC-INFO.